The graph shows the number of published surveys over time from 1980 to 2016. The methods used include 3-D, Lidar, SfM, Rockfall inventories, 2-D, Photography/map comparison, and 1-D, transect. There was a significant increase in surveys starting around 1990, with a notable peak in the late 2000s.