Dear Authors, Both reviews for the paper are now in (there are none outstanding) and though the paper discussion is open until the 28th May - comments only (not reviews) can come in during this time. Therefore, to speed up the review/publication process you are welcome to start work on revising the manuscript.

Both reviews are supportive of the paper - with one suggesting more changes and asking for certain points to be clarified/answered. When you submit your revised manuscript - please indicate clearly where changes have been made (track changes) along with a document indicating what these changes are. Many thanks, Tom Coulthard
